Post Office Box Rent Goes up July 1

Rent for post office boxes is going up July 1, the local post office announced this week. Postmaster John R. Hays says that the increase is a result of an order received from the Post Office Department which applies throughout the United States.

This basic change in rates is the first since 1907. Increases are made to conform with the increased cost of providing the equipment and maintaining the service. The last increase in box rent at the local Post Office was caused by the change in the class of the office—from a second class to a first class office, Hays says.

In the Cameron post office the rates effective July 1, 1953 are as follows: 75c boxes will be $1.10 per quarter; $1.00 boxes will be $1.50 per quarter and $1.50 boxes will be $2.25 per quarter.

Presbyterian Bible School

Vacation Bible School at the Presbyterian Church will begin Monday morning, June 15. Workers will be announced later.

Jones-Howard No. 1 In Bell County Shows Oil At 1250

A report came in Friday on a well being drilled in Bell County in which several Milam County business men had an interest, it was said. The well is the Jones-Howard No. 1, being drilled about 6 miles southeast of Belton near Summers Mill.

At last report, the well was at about 1,500 feet. An excellent showing was reported at about 1,250. The drilling contract calls for 4,300 feet. The oil producing sand reported was in the Glen Rose formation.

Drilling is on block 115 in Bell County. There are about 9,000 acres in the lease. Sinclair, Magnolia, Shell and Humble also have leased heavily in Bell County. There is another well being drilled just northeast of the Jones-Howard No. 1 on the T. L. Hubbard tract, block 86 about three miles distance. They were reported at about 1,200 at last information.

The Geology on this structure was worked out by Marshal Hayes, Jr. The final paragraph of his report states, "All in all, it is a most interesting area and one that is certainly worth drilling. A well located anywhere near the top of the structure should stand a good chance of proving productive."

Stockyards in Fort Worth Have Largest Run in Nineteen Years

The largest cattle run in 19 years was reported Monday at the Fort Worth Stockyards, with estimated receipts at 10,500.

The offerings were largely cows and yearlings, and included numerous stockers. Calf receipts totaled only 1,500.

Truckloads of cattle began arriving Sunday. Unloading was about finished by noon Monday. The cattle were mostly from East Texas, Oklahoma, and Louisiana. Nearly all were in good shape.

The heavy run was attributed to several factors. Many East Texas ranchers have been holding onto their livestock after a price drop in the market last year. They were looking for a price increase which failed to materialize. Now the cattle are being sold while still fat and before hot weather causes shrinkage and the range grass dries up.

Mrs. W. K. Earman is a patient at St. Edward Hospital.

The case of the State of Texas vs. Steven L. Work, which had been slated to be long and drawn out, ground to a sudden stop Tuesday afternoon when it was thrown out of court.

Earlier in the day court-appointed attorneys for the defense Jack Prescott and Emory Camp had filed a motion with the court to quash the indictment due to the fact that the indictment stated that Steven L. Work was charged with the rape of Dorothy Mae Work Diver on or about June 5, 1952, as this was before the marriage of Dorothy Mae Work to Diver.

After the opposing attorneys had gone through 58 special veniremen, disqualifying all but one, the defense again presented the motion to the court to quash the indictment before more special veniremen were called. At this time District Judge O. D. Graham granted the state's attorney one hour in which to prepare a brief and show why the indictment should not be quashed. At 3:00 Tuesday afternoon when court reconvened the Judge passed down his ruling that the indictment would be quashed and (See Incest, Back Page)

They and the other representatives from the council's 11 districts in nine counties had dinner in the camp dining hall and toured the camp.

Membership of the council stood at 6,664 on June 1, Taggart announced.

Final Rites For R. F. Yarbrough Scheduled Thursday

Funeral services were scheduled at 1:30 p. m. Thursday for R. F. (Bob) Yarbrough, 74, who died in Rockdale Tuesday.

The final rites were conducted at Phillips and Luckey chapel, with Minister McCurin Harwell of the Church of Christ officiating. The body was taken to Friendship for burial.

Mr. Yarbrough is survived by his widow; two daughters, Mrs. Ernest Hodge of Friendship and Mrs. Mable Sledge of Houston; and two sons, Preston Yarbrough of Houston and Clyde Yarbrough of Baltimore, Maryland.

Alvin Ernest Beyers, 24, of Amarillo, became Milam County's first traffic fatality of the year in an automobile accident early Sunday morning.

Beyers, a student at the University of Texas medical school at Galveston, was fatally injured east of Milano about 4:30 a. m. Sunday when the car in which he was riding turned over, throwing him from the automobile.

Thomas Cain, about 21, driver of the car, sustained shock and bruises. He is a student at the Baylor Medical School in Houston.

According to State Highway Patrolman Worth Modesett, who investigated the accident, Cain was driving north on Highway 36 east of Milano in a 1953 Oldsmobile Holiday coupe. Cain said he was intending to take the left turn beyond an underpass toward Milano when he saw a car coming toward him on his side of the road. He said he attempted to turn right on Highway 79 toward Hearne, and lost control of the car. The auto skidded about 80 yards and rolled one and a half times, throwing both Meyers and Cain from the car which was completely demolished.

A Marek-Burns ambulance picked up the two men about 5 a. m. and took them to St. Edward Hospital, where Beyers died about 9 a. m. Sunday.

Sheriff Carl C. Black was unable to reach Beyers' mother and step-father, Mr. and Mrs. Shumake, until late Sunday afternoon. They came to Cameron immediately upon receiving the news. The body was taken from Marek-Burns funeral home to Amarillo Monday night.

Cain's parents of Plainview came here Sunday to be with him at St. Edward.

Until the Sunday accident, Milam County had achieved a record of over five months without a traffic death.

MILAM COTTON INSECTS

By J. D. Moore, County Agent
This week puts Milam County cotton in good condition. Most replanted cotton is up and is clean. March and early April cotton is blooming in a few fields with a good crop of squares coming on the lower fruiting limbs. Prospects are good now.

The insect situation is a different story. The young tender growth on the cotton is very inviting to the cotton flea hopper. We have another good crop of horsemint, a native flowering plant, in the pastures and on fence rows. The flea hoppers have been breeding in this crop of horsemint now for thirty days. As the horsemint matures in the next ten days, the increased number of flea hoppers are going into the cotton.

Farmers should poison twice. One application now and another by the middle of June. We should be through poisoning by the middle of June so as to give the beneficial insects a chance to build up. Regardless of when the farmers stop poisoning, the fields should be inspected every five days until the crop is made.

There is no formula or pattern to follow in controlling insects. For example, a very good field of March cotton was inspected on June 3. This field had the three early season applications completed by the last of May. It was bordered by a pasture. There was a very heavy infestation of fleahoppers in this field. The field of cotton is knee high and has a good crop of squares with a few blooms. The point is, the early poisoning paid off but farm infestation before damage is done

40 Percent of May TEC Placements Were In Agriculture

The Rockdale Texas Employment Commission announced that an increase in activity occurred during May 1953 over that of May 1952. There were three less applications for employment than a year ago; however, there was a 33 percent increase in active applications. This can account for the 26 percent increase in unemployment insurance claims.

Placements showed a 38 percent increase over May a year ago. Veterans comprised 25 percent of the total placements, but the ratio of veteran placements to the non-agriculture industry was 43 percent, and total females was 16 percent.

Forty percent of total placements was in the agriculture industry. Full time farm workers are in greater demand than seasonal workers at this time.

The Rockdale TEC office is beginning to receive applications from students interested in summer work since the close of school.

Anyone interested in labor market information and employment needs is asked to contact the Rockdale TEC office in the American Legion Building on the corner of Main and Milam Streets, Rockdale.

to the crop.

One quart of toxaphene per acre of cotton, using two spray nozzles, should be used now.

Milam County Field Day at Blackland Attended by Sixty

More than 60 farmers, ranchers, businessmen, and agricultural workers attended the Annual Milam County Field Day at the Blackland Experiment Station in Temple on Tuesday, June 2, 1953.

The group met at the Experiment Station at 1 p. m. for an Early panel discussion on corn and grass sorghum by J. W. Collier of the Experiment Station. Collier emphasized the importance of soil fertility and thicker spacing with corn. He recommended that corn be planted from 18 inches to 20 inches.

Dr. Cook of the Experiment Station discussed cotton and stressed the importance of insect control and thicker spacing of cotton. Fertilizing of cotton, according to Dr. Cook, has not paid dividends. He warned Milam County farmers to eliminate green leaves while harvesting their cotton this year. He said that the green leaves in cotton when taken to the gin would cause leaf stain in the cotton which prevents even drying on cloth. Farmers will be docked for cotton that shows stains in lint.

After the panel discussion, the entire group was taken on a tour of the Experiment Station and witnessed demonstrations in grasses, water run off tests following crop rotation, methods of cattle grazing on permanent and temporary pastures, cotton root-rot control, methods of testing of corn grown in rotation, with other various groups.

The annual tour to the Blackland Experiment is sponsored by the Crops and Conservation Committee of the Cameron Chamber of Commerce.

THE ONLY ORGANIC BOLL WEEVIL POISON THAT:

- (1) is officially recommended—the only one—in the Lower Rio Grande Valley after migration. Last year when weevil migration was the worst in this area's history . . . dieldrin saved many acres of Texas cotton from total destruction.
- (2) gives the highest boll weevil kill during mid and late season. Not only that . . . dieldrin is deadly against weevils and most other cotton pests all season long; dieldrin-DDT mix is the superior commercial control for both boll weevil and bollworm.
- (3) has long residual action. No other cotton poison lasts as long even under normal conditions. Research has proved that no other poison can equal dieldrin's lasting control in hot, dry, windy areas. Even rain has less effect on dieldrin's killing power than on other poisons.
- (4) represents top performance. Research and experience show dieldrin is superior in killing weevils, just like dieldrin-DDT is tops in controlling bollworms, particularly under extreme climatic conditions. That's why in the Lower Rio Grande Valley where boll weevil is traditionally tough, dieldrin is the only organic poison officially recommended after weevil migration.

THE LITTLE RIVER PHILOSOPHER CLAIMS HE HAS PROOF THE SOUTH WON THE CIVIL WAR AND HE'S SATISFIED.

Editor's note: The Little River Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm at Marlow, has an odd idea this week, which we publish without comment. May be a few Yankees living around here.

Dear editor:

All my life I've heard it said the Yankees have more stamina than the Southerners, more drive, more get-up about em, if you want something done, give it to a hard-driving Northerner, don't turn it over to a drawlin slow-movin Southernered me, in fact, I never has botherer, and while this suits me fine, I recognize the wheels of industry and commerce and literature have got to keep turnin and if the Yankees went the job I'm perfectly willing, never did see a wheel that had a place on it to fit my shoulder, but there are some Southerners who don't like it.

They present it. They argue about it. They get up before daylight to prove they've got as much as anybody. Now while it never has affected me that way. I figure energy is something you don't have to prove, it's like money, you spend it recklessly to prove you got it and you wind up without any, personally I've always conserved my energy, feel in that energy still inside me was better than energy used up goin up one row and down another, but as I say, while this claim of Northern superiority in this field of endeavor never has bothered me, it has a lot of Southerners.

I believe though I have run on to some evidence that will win the argument for the South.

I noticed in an article in a magazine the other day which I borrowed from a barber shop in town where I was visitin for social purposes, not professional, where there are now six survivors of the Civil War still livin.

And here's the overwhelming fact that ought to end the argument from now on. Out of those six survivors, five of em are Confederates! The South had the stamina to out-survive the North five to one. In fact, you might say, from sheer numerical strength, in the final analysis the South won the war.

This is such a satisfyin conclusion, such devastatin proof the South has more energy and stayin power than the North, that as far as I'm concerned from now on. The South can rise again if it wants to, but as for me, personally I'll continue sittin.

Yours faithfully
J. A.

Since three neighbor children were passing right in front of the house, Plsek said nothing. But, as soon as they were out of the snake's range, he told them to wait a minute.

Plsek rushed around the house, grabbed a hoe, and killed the snake. He identified it as a fat, three-foot-long water moccasin.

He had to walk the rest of the way home with the children.

SO ROOMY! SO LOW IN PRICE!

Judge Pontiac purely from the standpoint of quality and it's hard to believe that it is actually a low-priced car.

Here's a car so handsomely styled it's one of the most beautiful on the road.

Performance-wise, too, Pontiac will take on all comers. Its big, high-compression engine gives you split-second response in city traffic, lets you cruise at highway speeds with plenty of power to spare and economy, too.

Pontiac is a big car—in fact, no car so big is priced so low. Its long 122-inch wheelbase means road-hugging safety. And inside you'll find Pontiac's big, roomy Body by Fisher gives you plenty of space to relax.

But Pontiac's outstanding feature is its price—a price so low that if you can afford any new car you can afford a Pontiac.

We'll be glad to prove that dollar for dollar you can't beat a Pontiac!

Blood Center Meets Disaster Needs With No Outside Help

During the month of May the Central Texas Regional Blood Center underwent the greatest test since the doors were opened July 1, 1952.

On the afternoon of May 11, while the Blood Center staff was meeting with St. Louis area office officials on next year's budget, a tornado slashed through downtown Waco some ten blocks away and out into the residential districts. Lights, radio, and telephone communications were all out the instant the disaster struck. 115 lives were lost, 2,000 people injured and over 300 homes totally destroyed.

The Central Texas Regional Blood Center during the first 48 hours following the disaster distributed 200 pints of whole blood, 120 units of liquid plasma, and 50 units of serum albumin.

Although offers of help from other blood banks were spontaneous and numerous, coming from all over the country, THE BLOOD BANK HAD ALL THE BLOOD NECESSARY TO MEET THE DISASTER AND DID NOT HAVE TO REQUEST A SINGLE PINT FROM ANOTHER BLOOD BANK.

At the time the disaster hit, the Blood Center had 140 pints of whole blood on hand at the Center and some 40 pints distributed between the two hospitals in their laboratories. The people of Waco turned out in mass to give blood on the night of the disaster and the entire Center staff, although they had put in a full eight-hour day drawing blood at McGregor, drew blood all night long on the night of the disaster. Central Texas can rest assured that, as long as our communities answer their responsibilities in this blood program, blood will always be sufficient to take care of any disaster in this area.

The Center collected 1845 pints of blood during May; 1281 were distributed to civilian hospitals and 824 were sent to the Department of Defense.

Despite the recent decision by the Army to replace plasma with dextrose because of the high incidence of infectious hepatitis transmitted by plasma, our military quota remains as high as ever and the need for blood for the Department of Defense still is urgent. This is because the total supply of gamma globulin, both for civilian and military use in this country as well as our supply of serum albumin comes from military quota. In addition to this, civilian defense is continuing to stock pile dried plasma against an emergency.

Heart O' Texas Fair to Open In Waco on Sept. 26

The Heart O' Texas Fair, which will fling open its gates for the first time on Sept. 26 for a nine-day run at Waco will primarily serve a 17-county area which last year had an income of $112,000,000 from agriculture and livestock, declared M. D. Corbin, executive vice president of Texas' newest exposition.

"Of this vast amount," Corbin continued, "55 per cent came from cotton; 15 per cent, cattle; 12 per cent, dairy products; eight per cent, poultry and eggs, with the remainder derived from corn, wheat, grain sorghums and other products—truly a diversified empire."

Officials of the exposition emphasize however that many entries from all parts of Texas and from other states are expected, with a substantial portion of the attendance also coming from wide territory.

President of the fair is Pat Taggart, president of the Waco Chamber of Commerce and business manager of the Waco News-Tribune and Times-Herald.

The Waco fair will center around the brand-new $1,000,000 McLennan County Coliseum, one of the largest in the State, with a seating capacity of 7,638 for the rodeo.

FINGERPRINT REPORT

82 Percent of All Jobs Now Covered By Social Security

At the end of February 1953 over 5,200,000 persons were drawing Federal old-age and survivors insurance benefits, James B. Marley of the Austin social security field office said today. "Eighty-two per cent of all jobs are now covered by this program, and over 66½ million persons have been working long enough in covered employment or self-employment to be insured," Marley declared.

This means, in most cases, that if the worker dies, his family could draw monthly payments, which would help offset the loss of income due to his death. Also, many of these workers who are nearing retirement age, will be able to quit work and still have a check coming in each month.

Monthly benefit amounts were increased by the Social Security Act amendments of 1950 and again in 1952, so that, as of January 1953, the average amount of monthly benefits to a retired wage earner without dependents is now about $47.25 per month. For a retired worker with benefits based on earnings since 1950, the average monthly benefit is about $65.

The economic security of the community is strengthened by these social security payments because they supplant, in part, the loss of family income due to retirement or death of the wage earner. "When you consider the population of your individual locality, and realize that four out of five people are either protected by his insurance or are drawing benefit under this program, it is easy to see the direct effect it has on your community," Marley declared.

World's Greatest Potato Race

That's the 2200-mile dash on the Santa Fe with 1,350,000,000 potatoes

Somewhere east said, "Pass the potatoes!"

Out in California, the fertile San Joaquin Valley heard them. And look what happened.

Santa Fe started moving 14,000 to 15,000 carloads of potatoes to hungry markets all over the Midwest and East. 36,000 to 40,000 pounds to a carload. As high as 550 carloads per day at peak of harvest. That's more than 1,350,000,000 potatoes. And that's a lot of spuds.

Bag 'em. Load 'em. Roll 'em. And hustle. Somebody east said, "Pass the potatoes!"

From America's largest fleet of refrigerator cars owned by an individual railroad, these yellow

Santa Fe "reefers" are dispatched to the "Potato Capital of the West."

There the cars are cleaned, checked, loaded, switched. And iced fast (a car a minute, if you please). These potatoes can't wait!

In servicing the cars as they speed east, new icing docks at Bakersfield and Needles, Calif., Belen, N. Mex., Waynoka, Okla. and Kansas City work the clock around. Electronically-controlled "hump" yards speed the switching.

SANTA FE PRECISION—SANTA FE SPEED

On-time delivery calls for full-time precision to keep these schedules "on the advertised."

After the potatoes come the wheat... citrus fruits... grapes... melons... and green vegetables all year long—flooded east from Santa Fe country to you. Everything from avocados to zucchini.

It costs Santa Fe millions of dollars to serve you so—and provide you with Super Chiefs, too! But we're proud to say they are earned dollars. Not one penny comes from the taxes you pay.

DENOMINATIONAL RIVALRY DECREASED IN TEXAS

Rivalry among the religious denominations has not always been as good-natured as it is now. It was the belief of many on the frontier that there was only one road to the Glory Land — and pride and vanity usually convinced the spiritual traveler that only he and his caravan possessed the correct road map.

The exclusive, aristocratic attitude of the Episcopal Church is described in an account in "A Treasury of Southern Folklore." It "is decidedly the 'social' church of the South. The Presbyterians are also acceptable, if less exalted. But the Baptist, Methodist, et al., are, in the old tradition, the churches of the phibian elements." At a church meeting, the account recalls, a parishioner rose and asked: "Pastor, is it possible for a man to achieve salvation outside the fold of the Episcopal Church?" The pastor stood in deep meditation for a long minute then replied: "It is conceivable that there might be such a possibility — but no gentleman would avail himself of it."

The Reverend John W. Addison wrote of the Lavaca circuit in 1853: "... I think of all the circuits in the Conference this is one of the greatest for having a few of all kinds of people in it, — from Methodist down to Baptists. Not forgetting Campbellites, and almost every kind of it and ism in the Creation, and they are all as hidebound as the Devil himself."

Methodists were regarded by members of rival sects as the most persistent of proselyters. The determined Methodist circuit rider gave rise to a description of bad weather: "There's nobody out today but crows and Methodist preachers."

From the very beginning the Methodists and Baptists locked spiritual horns in Texas. Any time they had off from fighting the Devil they usually put in throwing verbal punches at each other. In Erath County, in July, 1866, a "declaration of open war" was declared between the Methodist and "the opposing church," which offered "500 head of cattle to any-one who could show infant Baptism from the Scriptures." A bond was drawn up and the Reverend Peter Gravis held forth for two hours defending the Methodist doctrine. He never got the cattle, according to the Methodist report, because of a defective clause in the bond.

A much enjoyed story is about a young Methodist minister, who had been asked in an emergency to conduct a Baptist funeral. In a quandary, he wired his bishop for instructions. The bishop wired back: "Bury all the Baptists you can."

W. B. "BILL" PEARCE will be guest speaker at the District No. 10 Retreat at Camp Parker. This retreat is sponsored by the Christian (Disciples) Churches on June 13 and 14.

Pearce is one of the outstanding speakers for the Department of Men's Work through the UCMS of the Christian (Disciples) Churches of the nation. He has traveled widely, having recently returned from a trip around the world with a group of church leaders in the interest of the men's work. He, a church laymen, brings a message men can understand.

Camp Parker is half way between Groesbeck and Mexia. Take Highway 4 out of Mexia or Groesbeck to get to the camp.

Make your reservations through the local Christian (Disciples) Church minister. Reservations must be made at once as the district C. M. F. must furnish and cook the food. Men of other denominations are also invited to make reservations.

son wrote of his Georgetown circuit in January, 1851: He told of spending the night with an old man "an 'Arkansayer' and an old Granny — the old lady a Baptist and an ignorant one at that. One that wants every body to 'follow the Lord down in the water' — The Lord save me from old Baptist women."

Worshippers certainly got on each other's nerves during frontier days before they became tolerant.

L. Floeckenger, re-elected president; Mrs. Grady Stidham of Cameron, elected vice-president; and Mrs. A. T. Hicks of Taylor, re-elected secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. Alice Morrison, Red Cross Assistant Field Director at Fort Hood and Mrs. Geneva Snell, a representative from McClosky Veterans' Hospital at Waco, requested several types of articles for use in the hospitals. Both workers asked especially for paper backed pocket books and comic books, used or new. In addition, the Fort Hood Hospital needs 8 inch pitchers and drinking glasses for use in the wards. Anyone having such items to donate should take them to Mrs. Grady Stidham, 822 North Houston, phone 321.

The next meeting of the council will be on September 24 in the Employees' Club at McClosky Veterans' Hospital.

Pvts. John R. Small and Andrew L. Raymond, Jr. visited parents and friends in Cameron during the weekend on pass from Fort Hood where they are completing a cycle of training as members of the 1st Armored Division.

They both were inducted in the Army several weeks ago and assigned to the same outfit at Fort Hood. Small made headlines in newspapers in this area at the time since he was the 6,000th man to be inducted at Fort Hood since the start of the war in Korea, and received a special welcome.

Raymond said that previously groups on finishing their basic training at the camp had been shipped out to the Far Eastern Command for service in Korea. But, due to a recent change in orders, the group with which he and Small were training probably would be assigned to the 1st Armored Division to fill vacancies, and would remain there during the coming months.

Army Marks 178 Years As Servant Of The People

On July 14 the United States will celebrate its 178th birthday. A quick look at the record shows how the Army serves the welfare of our country both in peace and war.

We generally think of our Army as a fighting machine and are familiar with its wartime accomplishments. But if we stopped there we would be leaving out of the Army's story some of its most inspiring contributions to our national welfare, past and present.

Our Army has pioneered the exploration, mapping, and settlement of America. It pioneered the development of aviation. It has built roads, railroads, telegraph lines, canals, and light-houses. It has fought disease, and led in the development of safe air transportation. Its officers and men have helped millions stricken by disaster, both at home and abroad. It supervised the development of atomic power and radar. Its specialists search endlessly for better, cheaper ways of getting the job done.

Besides these accomplishments, the Army has fought in all of our Country's wars and kept itself ready to defend the United States "against all enemies whomsoever." That's our Army's record—the bare outline of its rich and eventful history of service to the American people.

For 178 years, that has been your Army—in peace and war. Each man and woman now serving is part of the Army that began its service before America was an independent nation, and that has gone on serving for 178 years.

Miss Marilyn Dusek Becomes Bride Of Mr. Myron Dees

In a candlelight ceremony Wednesday night, May 27, Miss Marilyn Dusek became the bride of Mr. Myron Dees. The double ring rites were read by Rev. Henry Beseda, Jr. of Rosenberg in Lois Perkins Chapel of Southwest-ern University.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dusek of Granger. Mr. Dees is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Matt M. Dees of Llano.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of blush pink tulle and Chantilly lace over taffeta, fashioned with portrait neckline. The tulle skirt was adorned with lace and formed a cathedral train. Her veil of three tiers of Blush silk illusion was held in place by a crown of pearls. She carried a yellow-throated white orchid and valley lilies.

Texas Lions' Free Summer Camp For Handicapped Opens

About 50 children were registered Monday for the opening of Texas Lions' free summer camp at Kerrville for crippled children.

By the time the summer is over it is hoped about 240 handicapped children will have a chance to attend the camp. Next year maybe 700 children will get a chance to visit the 504-acre site four miles south of here.

This year there will be two camp periods of six weeks each. Eventually the Lions hope to make the camp a nine months operation.

At present Texas Lions have completed two bunk houses, an infirmary, dining hall, swimming pool, craft shop and an outdoor barbecue pit.

House to Cut $300 Million From Next Year's Vet Pensions

Washington, June 9.—A House Appropriations subcommittee has ordered a $300 million cut in former President Truman's requests for veterans, pensions and compensation payments next year, chairman John Phillips said Tuesday.

Mr. Truman had requested $2,546,291,000 for pension and compensation payments to veterans in the new fiscal year 1954 which starts July 1. Pensions go to aged veterans. Compensation payments are for injuries or illness suffered in uniform.

In his revised budget for the Veterans Administration, President Eisenhower cut Mr. Truman's proposal by $46,291,000. The House subcommittee boosted the cut to an even $300 million in recommending $2,246,291,000 for the program.

The slash in pension and compensation funds was in line with committee staff recommendations. The staff said in a report Sunday that substantial savings could be made by trimming pensions and eliminating borderline compensation cases.

Baptists Send Money To Valley Hospital

Four Children Drown While Wading In Brazos River

Bryan. — The Brazos River claimed the lives of four boys by drowning Sunday.

The tragedy broke up a fishing expedition by families of two workers on the A&M College farm. The victims were two children of Theodore Benavides, a cousin of the children, and a young playmate.

Benavides and his brother, Casanado, had taken their young sons to the bank of the river. The children were wading when the playmate, Hernandez Sanchez, 9, went in over his head.

Casanado Benavides and his son, Cananado, Jr., 10, went to Hernandez's rescue but got into trouble themselves.

The two sons of Theodore Benavides, Macario, 13, and Anastasio, 9, tried to wade across the river to get to their father but were drowned.

Brownsville Center Will Seek Control Of Pink Bollworm

Washington, June 8.—Agriculture Department scientists will seek ways to control the pink bollworm cotton pest at a new $73,000 research center at Brownsville, Tex., it was announced Monday.

Avery S. Hoyt, chief of the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine, said that Texas Southmost College will build the laboratory on a five-acre site near the Rio Grande River.

The bureau will lease the laboratory from the college for 20 years paying about $200-a-month the last 10. Aides said the rent amounts to amortization costs plus maintenance.

Hoyt said the southern tip of Texas—the area most heavily infested with the pink bollworm—is "an ideal location" for the research center. A sub-laboratory on bollworm research is also being set up at Lubbock, Tex., he said.

23,000 Men to Be Drafted by Army In August Call

Washington, June 8.—The Army issued a draft call for 23,000 men in August.

This is the same number as was asked for July. It brings to 1,492,430 the total number of men drafted or earmarked for induction since selective service was resumed in September, 1950.

The draft calls of the last two months are less than half the average monthly draft for the earlier part of this year and the last three months of 1952.

The drops reflect plans of the Eisenhower administration to trim back the size of the Army.

INCEST—

the defendant dismissed. Immediately following this action by the court, County Attorney J. W. Miller filed charges against Steven L. Work and Dorothy Mae Work for incest. An examining trial was held in the court of Justice of the Peace B. G. Rice with Camp and Prescott representing both defendants in order to determine whether or not there was sufficient evidence to bind the two defendants over to the grand jury. Judge Rice ruled that there was sufficient evidence to bind the defendants over and set bonds at $2,000 for Work and $500 for his daughter. The state originally asked for $5,000 bond on each.

Following the dismissal of Work's rape indictment he could not be re-indicted for rape due to the one-year Statute of Limitations on statutory rape. The alleged offense took place on June 5, just one year and four days from the time it was dismissed. At press time no new trial had been set.
